

Hi Karabena community,

This last month has been jam packed. With another year of the ECHO First Nations Women's Leadership Program, and Kerry and David travelling all over the state for the Victorian Aboriginal Early Years Framework Workshops and Forums, it's been busy as usual at Karabena HQ.

Here are some of the things we've been up to:

ECHO First Nations Women's Leadership Program

The ECHO First Nations Women's Leadership Program is a regular event which now has an alumni of 65 First Nations women based in Victoria.

Facilitated by a team led by Karen Milward and Dr. Kerry Arabena with Amanda Meric, Kim Reid, Judy McDonald and Daphne Milward, the October 2023 course has just been completed, leaving women with a deep and profound excitement for their leadership journey and a renewed sense of purpose.

Read all about this year's program here.

Recap of Victorian Aboriginal Early Years Health Frameworks & Forums

Thanks to everyone who has joined us for a workshop or forum across Victoria in the last couple of months. Your insights have been valuable in crafting an Early Years Health Framework for Victorian First Nations peoples.

A highlight of travelling around the state for these workshops has been getting to experience the beautiful Cultural Centres across Victoria. Keep an eye on our socials to see more pictures of these incredible spaces.

Echuca and Shepparton - we're coming your way next! Join us later this week:

- 23 November - Echuca
- 24 November - Shepparton

Join our team!

We are looking for a new Senior Consultant Associate to join the Karabena team. This role combines consulting expertise and leadership qualities to lead the delivery of high-quality research and evaluation projects under the direction of the Managing Director.

See more

To apply, or to find out more about our selection criteria and a Position Description, contact us at kim@karabenaconsulting.com

Shop Ilan Style

Support Indigenous Business this Festive Season

Kerry's other business, Ilan Style, is the perfect place to get your Christmas shopping done this year! With delicious teas created with native ingredients, and sustainable wellness products, gift kindness with Ilan Style.

Connect with us on social media

